A damaged yet active data slate journal of The Seer Aristarchus found in the Crying Clota days after the events in the Black Cathedral with the daemon Tysiak...

God-Emperor, I cannot believe it, but it is true. Skae took me into the cathedral and I saw the very vision of Saint Drusus himself! He spoke to me, the unworthy soul that I am. Yes it all makes sense now, my posting here, the gift of the Tarot deck, all leading me here, so I can be his Vessel, the blessed instrument of his rebirth!

The rest of the dataslate is damaged or hold nothing of additional significance...
